THE HONORABLE GREGORY J. FOURATT
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

¹ The Court's teleconference line has a limited number of external connections. Therefore, by default, each side may use a maximum of two telephone lines on which to call in. If unanimous, the parties may agree to a different division. If a side wishes to have more people participate than they have available connections, they may have persons share one telephone via a speakerphone or set up a separate teleconference that they then connect to the Court's line.
